THE JOY OF GIVING

What exactly is the “Joy of Giving?” Is it that the more we give, the better we feel about ourselves? Does giving help us to focus on others rather than being consumed by our own concerns and challenges? When we give, we get to reap the joy of seeing a smile, or even tears of joy, and it is then that we may realize that the rewards of giving are priceless.

Giving is not just a duty or obligation, but it is also a privilege and an honor. We are called to give with joy and generosity, knowing that every act of giving is a way of participating in God’s work of love and justice in the world. It is a way of living out our faith and sharing the Good News of the Gospel with others. We are all called to be the face, hands and heart of Christ so giving of ourselves, is giving as God wishes us to give.

Released by the Vatican in February 2022, the pope’s Lenten message was titled, “Let us not grow tired of doing good, for in due time we shall reap our harvest if we do not give up. So then, while we have the opportunity, let us do good to all,” which is from St. Paul’s Letter to the Galatians.

GIVING THANKS

Bishop Zarama and staff from The Foundation recently met with some donors from the Cape Fear Deanery.

The Basilica of Saint Mary Parish graciously provided the group with the location of the beautifully renovated Upper Room for the luncheon gathering. It was the perfect spot for Bishop Luis to express his love & thanks to the attendees for their ongoing support of the Diocese of Raleigh.

CREATING A LEGACY THROUGH GIVING

In Catholicism, giving is not just about charity or philanthropy. It is about a way of life. It is about recognizing the dignity and worth of every human being and responding to their needs with compassion and generosity.

Donors, Brug and Howie Jung feel that their legacy is "to help the less fortunate and also to help the folks who are looking for a good quality education and may not be able to afford it...who someday will be able to be in the position to say, I want to give back, I want to help."

Giving back and being in a position to give back is a strong driver for many of the donors within the Diocese of Raleigh. Ultimately, building a legacy of giving is about more than just making a financial contribution. It is about leaving a positive impact on the world and creating a better future for generations to come.

The Foundation is here to help assist you with creating your Legacy. By working together to identify the causes that matter most to you, we can help you continue to build a legacy of generosity and faith that will endure for years.
